IT UNIFIES REPUBLICANS.

CITS' PROGRAMME TO HELP TAM-MANY IN DISTRICT FIGHTS.

Plain Purpose of Nominating Assemblymen, Councilmen, and Aldermon-Gen, Tracy Calls on Gen, Harrison-County Ticket Not Made Up-Van Brunt to He Nominated.

The Hon. Benjamin F. Tracy yesterday afternoon returned from a visit overnight to ex-Gov. Morton at Rhinecliff. His visit to Mr. Morton, he said, was purely a social matter. Late in the day he called on ex-President Benjamin Har-rison at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, Many Republicans had hoped that Gen. Harrison could so arrange his engagements as to make a speech for Gen. Tracy at the mass meeting in Cooper Union on Friday night. Gen. Harrison and Gen. Tracy talked this matter over, and while Gen. Harrison again expressed his great interest in the fight which Gen. Tracy is leading, he said that he had come to New York on a social visit and that it had not been his intention to enter the political field as a speechmaker. Gen. Harrison on the first day he came to New York remarked that his speechmaking days were over, and last evening it appeared to be almost certain that Gen. Harrison could not arrange to be present at the mass meeting in Cooper Union.

Many Republicans assembled at the headquarters of the city campaigners, 1 Madison square. All were interested in the county ticket to be named on Thursday night in Lyric Hall, to be named on Thursday night in Lyric Hall, No definite slate has been arranged, and none will be it was said, until later on. There were many favorites, though, for the various nominations and the misority opinion was to the effect that the following nominations might be made; for sherif. Thomas L. Hamilton.

For District Attorney, W. M. K. Olcott.
For County Clerk, James R. O'Heirne.
For Register, Gen. George Von Schack.

For Register, Gen. George Von Schack.

The Temmany people on Thursday afternoon, it was learned from Tammany men, are to resominate Charles H. Van Brunt for the Supreme Court bench, and the Republican County Convention on Thursday night. Republicansaid, is to indorse Judge Van Brunt and to name as the second nomination for Supreme Court Justice ex-Judge Thomas Allison. It was the opinion that Julius H. Seymour and Elisha K. Camp will be nominated by the Republicans as City Court Judges. Further than that nothing appeared to be settled.

Senator Platt and Representative Quigg spent the evening togother at the Hotel Castleton, St. George, Staten Island. They discussed the situation and the progress of the campaign, and both said that everything was running along spendidly.

occopies, state large that the campaign, and both said that everything was running along splendidly.

Republicans at the Fifth Avenue Hotel received the news that the Citizens Union is to nominate candidates for Assemblymen, Councimen, and Aldermen with no surprise at all. It was the unanimous opinion, however, that the Citizens Union, in making these proposed nominations, had thrown off the mask. The Citizens Union felks have stated all along, it was recalled, that it was organized for the purpose of nominating candidates for city effices, and Mr. Low's remark that he hoped to be a unifying force in the matter of being the candidate for Mayor of Greater New York has been received with varied comments. But the Republicans say that it is manifestly the programme of the Citizens' Union to try to send Tammany Assemblymen to Albany and to do everything in their power to elect Tammany's Councilmen and Aldermen by precipitating three-cornered fights in the various districts, and that there can be but one result in the close districts, and that is the election of Tammany candidates. It was generally accepted that these Citizens' Union nominations for Assemblymen, Councilmen, and Aldermen will solidity the Republican party for Gen. Tracy and the city and county tickets, Mr. Low has insisted that he would receive Republican votes. The Republicans at the Fifth Avenue Hotel said last night that after reading the programme of the Cits to attempt to elect Tammany candidates all the Republicans in Greater New York will close the ranks and become one great united party for the election of the city and county tickets, and furthermore that the battles for Assemblymen, Councilmen, and Aldermen will be hotly contested in every district.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE? NO. Won't Inderes Lew to Oblige Charles Stewart

The Executive Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, of which Charles Stewart Smith of the Citizens' Union is Chairman, had a meeting in the Chamber of Commerce at 11:30 yesterday morning. The committee met to ascertain what attitude on the Greater New York Mayoralty campaign should be recommended at the annual meeting of the Chamber on Thursday.

All the members of the Executive Committee were present. It had been known for two or three days that an effort would be made at this meeting to commit the Chamber of Commerce to the candidacy of Seth Low. Mr. Smith of the Cits is very partial to Mr. Low, and so is Alexander E. Orr, who, as President of the Cham ber, is ex-officio a member of the Executive

When Mr. Smith and his fellow committeemen took up the question yesterday as to whether the Chamber of Commerce should indorse Seth Low or in any way take action as to his candinstrated that a the committee were opposed to any such action. The committeemen who attended the meeting did not care to speak in detail of what had oc-curred. All that one member of the committee curred. All that one member of the committee would say was: "There will be no action taken concerning the candidacy of Mr. Low. Further than that I cannot speak."

While Mr. Orr supports Low, he has been op-

While Mr. Orr supports Low, he has been opposed, it was said, for some time back to fringing political matters into the Chamber of Commerce. There are many Republican members of the Chamber of Commerce who favor Gen. Tracy for the reason that he stands on the St. Louis platform. In view of this situation Mr. Smith did not finally precipitate a resolution calling on the Executive Committee of the Chamber to indorse Mr. Low.

Early in June Mr. Smith, so his friends said yesterday, desired the Union League Club, of which he is a prominent member, to take some action looking to an indorsement of the Chizens' Union movement. Members of the Chamber of Commerce who are also members of the Union League Club recalled this centemplated action on the part of Mr. Smith, and said that the Union League was ready to jump on Mr. Smith preposition to inderse the Citizens' Union movement, and so Mr. Smith did not present it to the club. It was said yesterday that the Chamber of Commerce to-day stands just where the Union League Club stood in June.

It was positively said yesterday afternoon by those acquainted with what occurred at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Chamber that the proposition to commit the Chamber to the candidacy of Seth Low had signally failed.

FOR A HOT FIGHT IN BROOKLYN. Both Factions of the Republicans United and in Tremendous Enrucat.

The Executive Committee of the Republican County Committee in Brooklyn met last night at its rooms in the Johnston building to arrange for active campaign work. There were indica tions, now that the battle for control of the Greater New York is on in earnest, that all factional hostilities would cease and both sides tional hostilities would cease and both sides work in earnest for the success of the ticket. Justice Brenner moved that an Advisory Committee of ten should be appointed to co-operate with the committee of nine, three from each Council district in Brooklyn, in running the campaign. Sheriff Buttling was at first inslined to kick at the proposition, contending that the rule of allowing the Executive Committee to conduct the canvass in its own way should be observed. At the request of several of his fellow committeenen he withdrew his epposition, and Justice Brenner's resolution was adopted.

The Republicans are determined to put up a strong fight in Brooklyn. Neither County Clerk Worth nor Sheriff Buttling takes any stock in the variegated Cits' Union-Siepardite ticket, and there is no foundation for the rumors which have been industriously circulated that they are contemplating a boit to Low. They made their fight fit the convention and they propose to shinde by its decision. Sheriff Buttling has assured Mr. Atterbury, Mr. Willis and their associates on the county ticket that they can depend on the carnest support of his faction in the campaign and at the polls. Neither he nor-bary of his friends will make any dicker with the cammies of the party.

JUDGE WALLACE NOTIFIED. to Accepts the Republican Nomination fo

The Hon. William J. Wallace, United States Circuit Court Judge for the Second District New York, Vermont and Connecticuti, who was unanimously nominated for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals by the Republican State Committee, which was endowed with the powers of a State Convention by the convention which nominated Gov. Black in Saratogasin 1896, was formally notified yesterday of his nomination. The notification ceremonies took place in the private chambers of Judge Wallace in the Federal building. The Advisory Committee of the State Committee had been appointed as the Notification Committee, All were present, Senator Thomas C. Platt, Chauncey M. Depew, ex-Senator Frank Hiscock, Ed-cey M. Depew, ex-Senator Frank Hiscock, Edward Lauterbach and Frank S. Witherbee. In addition Charles W. Hackett, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, and Postmaster Van Cott were present.

Dr. Depew was spokesman. He said: "Judge Wallace: The pleasant and honorable duty devolves upon us of tendering you the nomination of the Republican party of the State of New York for Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals. The nomination was made by the representatives with enthusiasm and unanimity. Its reception by the press of the party has been singularly complimentary to our choice, and has indicated a solidity of public approval. The highest court of the Empire State has from the foundation of our Government held the first rank in the authority of its decisions among the tribunals of the various commonwealths. In dignity and influence it ranks next to the Supreme Court of the United States. Its history has been made illustrious by having upon its rolls the most emificant lawyers and Judges of our country.

presented to our State Committee, and that was your own. Your twenty years of service upon the Federal beach have been distinguished by hose rare gifts which make the great, wise, able and impartial Judge. In drafting you from the United States Court into our Court of Appeals, we feel that we are honoring both our country and our city; our country by taking from its service so gifted' a son because we could thus best strengthen and preserve the tradition of our own court of last resort. We believe that this choice will meet at the polis with the cordial approbation of the people of New York, and that we shall have the privilege of congratulating our State and yourself upon the happy result.

Judge Wallace replied:

"Gentlemen of the Committee: I feel honored far beyond my deserts that the authorized representatives of the Republicans of New York should deem me a worthy candidate for the highest judicial office of the State, and I wish to express to the State Committee, its advisory associates, and to their members individually my profound and grateful appreciation of such a manifestation of partiality and confidence. That office is not one in which party politics can find any sphere of influence; but my nomination by the Republicans of the State makes me primarily their candidate, and I fully recognize that I should not have been selected if I had not been known to be in thorough and pronounced accord with the principles and policies of the Republican party. I esteem it an inestimable privilege to have been associated with that party when it fought for denationalizing slavery; when it piluted the nation through the civil war to a vindicated Constitution and a restored Union; when it rehabilitated the republic into an enduring brotherhood of States; through the years of marvellous prosperity that blessed the country under its administration of the Government, and through those recent perious days when the rights of property sand the interests of honest labor, the just claims of public and private-creditions, the be unworthy of their support unless it also ap-peals to them, and to good citizens irrespective peals to them, and to good citizens irrespective of party, because during a somewhat long term of service upon the bench I have endeavored to discharge my duties faithfully, without fear or favor, and with the single purpose of administering even-handed justice.
"I accept the nomination, and beg to thank the Notification Committee most sincerely for the very kind terms in which they have conveyed their message."

BROOKLIN WOMEN IN LINE.

Mr. Quigg Talks to Them on the laures of the Campaign. Lemuel E. Quigg went to Brooklyn yesterday and made a brief address on the political situation before the Women's Republican Union League Club in its rooms in the Jonnston building. Mayor Wurster and Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff had been invited, but they sent letters of regret. The women's club was organized in the heat of the last Presidential campaign to aid in stemming the tide of Bryanism, and this year the great majority of the members are true-blue Republicans and opposed to the Mugwump methods of the Cits' Union. Mrs. Kate Bostwick, the President of the club, came out earnestly in support of Gen. Tracy directly after

The proceedings yesterday opened with the reading of a paper by Mrs. Jane Pierce on "The Responsibility of Party Nominations." Mrs. Pierce took strong ground in favor of the voting hosts enrolling themselves under the standard of one or the other of the great parties, and in the latter of the great parties, and in the standard of the great parties.

of one of the other of the great parties, and in bolding the parties to a strict responsibility for their nominees. Mrs. Kate Scrimgeour, who is a Low admirer, asked:

"What is the difference between the Republican par y and the Citizens' Union!"

Mrs. Pierce replied: "The Citizens' Union is simply a body of 250 men, who got together and selected a man who pleases them for a high and important office. I haven't a word to say as to the candidate of the Citizens' Union but I question the political wisdom of an organization which didn't seek to attala its ends by honorable means." Mr. Quigg got a warm reception when he was introduced and there was a second outburst of appliaue when he said that he would "hall with delight the day when women shall be able to

He then told the women what a grand organ-He then told the women what a grand organization the Republican party under whose banner they were flighting, had become in the vast territory soon to be consolidated. There was not, he said, a single election district in the Greater New Yors in which it did not have a flourishing organization.

"Such is not the case," he remarked, "with our friends of the Citizens Union. If our party, which has stood for competency, for honesty, for patriotism and rectitude, is to be divided against itself, then Tammany Hall may again step in.

against itself, then Tammany Hall may again step in.

Mr. Quigg told of the efforts which the Republicans had made to effect a real union of all the anti-Tammany organizations and how they had been upset by the headstrong action of the Citizens' Union Committee of 250, one-third of whom belong to the Low University Settlement. There was much handclapping when Mr. Quigg eniogized Gen. Tracy as a citizen, a Justice of the Court of Appeals, a Union soldier, and as Secretary of the Navy. Of Mr. Low he said:

"He inherited a large fortune and it has not spoiled him wholly. He is the President of a college. When he took charge of it there was no debt on it, but now there is nearly $5,000,000. He was Mayor of Brooklyn and made a good Mayor, and there is nothing wrong about him, only that he is trying to be Mayor of the Greater New York by smashing the Republican party." In clossing. Mr. Quigg predicted that either the Republican party or Tammany Hall woold win.

Fair Elections Bemanded. RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 5,-At the Republican State Convention in Lynchburg to-day Jacob Yost, permanent Chairman, said the Republicans in the State would compel an honest election law, and would be ready to put down fraud tion law, and would be ready to put down fraud both in their own ranks and those of the Democrats. The committee passed resolutions reaffirming the allegiance of the Virginia Republicans to the national Republican party and indorsed the St. Louis platform and demanded fair State elections.

The convention nominated for Governor Patrick McCaull of Cuipeper, formerly Collector of Internal Revenue of the western district of Virginia and a defeated candidate for Congress from the Seventh district in 1896. The other names before the convention were Capt Warren S. Lurty of Harrisonburg and Col. William E. Mickham of Hanover was nominated for State Chairman. Both nominations were accepted.

O. B. Holler of Rockingham was nominated for Lieutenant-Governor and James Lyons of Richmond for Attorney disneral. The latter boiled the Democratic party and joined the Republicans when Bryan was nominated for President.

This is the statement of Margaret Farley, the ife of James Farley, a railroad conductor, who lives at Lafayette avenue and Fourth street, West Brighton, S. I., in the matter of the murder of Mary E. Lynch by her husband, Peter Lynch, a laborer, and the attempt of Lynch to ommit suicide-both on the night of Monday,

"It is a sorry day for this house and for all that live in it, and may God have mercy on us and on the soul of her that is gone. There are ome who say that Peter Lynch was drunk when he did it, but he was not drunk. There are some who say he was crazy, but he was not crazy. Or if he was crazy, he has been so for five years that I know of, and may be more. For these fits have come on him for five years, since he was married. When he would drink, and he was drinking all the time, he would be jealous of his wife. And a better woman you will never see. Nor I. May God have mercy on her soul! He was so crazy life, were out on the street before the house. minding your own business, and Peter came home drunk, he would be after killing you for being in the house with the woman, and you never knowing who the woman was. Ah, but be was a bad man. The devil was in him.

"But he was not drunk last night. He was not drinking for some time. I think it was at the primaries two weeks ago this day. He was drunk then for three days. And on the night of Thursday he fell over the stair into the hall. Right before my door. Dr. Townshend said he was ill from the effect of intoxication and to give him the medicine and keep him from work and to keep the drink away from him. He was in bed from then on, and Mrs. Lynch, God have mercy on her, she has no more troubles-but her waited on him. In all that time we heard not a word from him until yesterday.

"At 11 o'clock I woke up. It was as if I had a feeling things were not as they should be. There was no sound except the poor woman walking up and down up there. That flooking at the ceiling is her blood. It is a sorry thing. Arrah me! It is a sorry thing. Arrah me! It is a sorry thing!

"And I fell into a doze. All the time I was dreaming that Pat Malloy, who is the watchman at the Town Hall, was walking around the house looking at the windows above. I woke up and I knew I had been dreaming, and Pat was nowhere near. But! felt as if things were not right. I got out of the bed and sat by the table there. I wanted to wake him inodding at the bed, but he was tired working on the train all day, and, asys I to myself. Till eth im sieen."

'I sat by the table with the lamp lit, doing nothing, for there was no sound in the house. Mrs. Lynch was walking no more. But I was afraid, for it seemed as if something was wrong. Then all of a sudden she screamed out loud up there, and I heard her run into another room. I said to myself: 'She was tired with waiting on her man, and she was dreaming in her sleen. Foor thing. Poor thing, indeed. But what did I was a dreaming in the sleen. Foor thing. They seemed to be flighting and she screaming. Esson I waked him up.

Carry Chicago for Bryan. One or two of the yellow journals of New York have printed pretended polls of voters and their predilections concerning the candidates for Mayor of Greater New York. One of the polls is printed by a paper that favors Seth Low, and another by a paper partial to Henry George. In both cases Gen. Tracy is put in the background by these pretended polls. The Republican man-agers said yesterday that they were well aware why these pretended polls were printed. merely a new style of campaigning in New York. It is old in Chicago.

For instance, all during the national fight a year ago one of the Chicago newspapers printed every morning a pretended poll of the voters of Cook county. Every morning this newspaper came out with its pretended poll, and every morning the poll showed that William J. Bryan was far ahead in Cook county, and would carry the county by at least 100,000 najority. At first these pretended polls annoyed Chairman Hanna of the Republican National committee, but he quickly saw through the scheme and diagnosed it as one to create a sentiment in Cook county favorable to Bryan. The pretended polls of the two yel-low newspapers of New York city, like the pretended poll of the Chicago paper, are but thinly veiled schemes, the Republican managers said, to create a sentiment in favor of the candidates respectively advanced by these two newspapers. Instead of carrying Cook county by 100,000, as the pretended poll of the Chi-cago newspaper said he would. Bryan was beaten in Cook county by 69,677. In other words, the pretended poll of the Chicago newspaper was merely a fake and was demonstrated to be a most lamentable fake on election day when McKinley swept Cook county.

BOMB IN CENTRE STREET COURT. It Was Found in the Possession of a Soy, Who Policeman Breen of the Elizabeth street station arraigned 17-year-old Herman Riselli of 145 Hester street in Centre Street Court yesterday on a charge of being a suspicious person. Breen had arrested Riselli for having in his possession a bomb made out of a piece of tron gas pipe, three-quarters of an inch in diameter and about ten inches long. Both ends of the bomb, which were exhibited in court, were plugged; at one end a piece of iron had been used, while at the other the plugging appeared to be gun waiding. Both saids had been battered shut by hammering.

In the middle of the bomb was a touch-hole, and through this orifice could be seen closely packed black powder, which, the prisoner admitted, was gunpowder. The laid when arrested in Hester street, near Baxter street, on Monday might, said he had got the bomb from another boy.

Magistrate Pool had a charge of carrying gas pipe, three-quarters of an inch in diameter

Magistrate Pool had a charge of carrying dangerous weapons preferred against the lad, and held him in $200 ball for examination to-morrow afternoon. Later, the Rev. Father Antonio Arrighl, the paster of the loy, called at the court, and induced Magistrate Pool to parole the lad in his custody.

NALE OF UNION PACIFIC. in the Property.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. and potent London financiers are interesting themselves in the Union Pacific Hallroad, and have inquired at the United States Consulate here whether there will be open bidding against the syndicate at the proposed safe of the roads comprising the Union Pacific system. The onsulate telegraphed to Washington for information, and this morning received a reply from Attorney General McKenna saying that the roads would be sold to the highest builder in open competitive sale on Nov. i, the sale to take place at Omaha. The authorities at the Consulate say that this is all the information that has as yet been received in regard to the sale. Washington, Oct. 5 .- Another all-day conference was held to-day by Attorney-General McKenna with ex-Gov. Housily, special counsel for the Government, over the Union Pacific sel for the Government, over the Union Pacific Railroad forcelosure sale. Unisual interests attached to the meeting because of the publication of a despatch from London that a British syndicate had offered, through Consul General Osborne, a bid to the Government of $50,000,000 for the Property. Speaking of this, Attorney-General McKenna said:

"The Government has nothing for sale in the premises, and the constant single-violation that the President and Attorney-feneral have decosed of its interest in the property in advance to the Reorganization Committee is detrimented as second mortgage on the property, and stands in exactly the same relation, as the holder of any junior lien upon a property ordered to be soid under forcelosure of the Hat mortgage, except that it has the assurance of the Reorganization. inder foreclosure of the first morrgage, except that it has the assurance of the Recraentzation Committee, representing the first boucholders, that it will make a minimum had or stables 0.000 and some hundreds of thousands, which, if it be accepted, will go to the Government for its equity in the property.

Mr. McKenos acknowledged that inquiries had come from Lordon regarding the sale, evidently based upon the deathat nobody but the Reorganization Committee would be journited to bid, and it was the impression that the Attorney-General sought to dispat. He said emphatically:

torney-General sought to dispe). He said emphatically:

"The saie will take place as advertised, OB Nov I, unless postponed, which does not now appear probable, and the property will be sold to the highest bidder, irrespective of nationality. The Administration is in no combination with the Reorganization Committee, or any one cise, and hopes that every one who wants to buy the property will be present and bid.

An impression prevails that the Reorganization Committee will have some hitherto unsuspected opposition, and that it will have to prove the number of the property of the prop
